STOP DRINKING

It was formerly customary for the habitual drinker to take the pledge regularly, sometimes once a year, and sometimes in every fit of remorse that followed his debauches, and then—Break it.

But now it is gradually dawning on the world that pledges do not stop drunkenness. When a man takes a pledge voluntarily he expects to keep it. Every man expects to keep his word, and every broken pledge costs the drunkard many a headache. But he cannot help it. He fights as long as he can, then succumbs to the craving. The nervous system of the habitual drinker is diseased and he must have treatment that will cure this condition. This Orrine will do and is sold under a positive guarantee to cure the drink habit or the money will be refunded. No other treatment for the liquor habit is sold with such a liberal guarantee.

Orrine is prepared in two forms: No. 1 a powder, perfectly tasteless and colorless, which can be given secretly in any food or drink. Orrine No. 2 in pill form, is for those who wish to be cured of the habit, and should be taken by every one who swears off.

No matter which form of Orrine is used the guarantee is the same. The price of Orrine is $1.00 per box, mailed in plain sealed wrapper, upon receipt of price. Write for free book, let on "How to Cure Drunkenness" (mailed in plain sealed envelope) by The Orrine Co., Washington, D. C. Orrine is sold by Herman C. Schuh.

AMUSEMENTS

A Marvelous Romance.

The marvelous romance of Monte Cristo, as arranged for the stage by a distinguished actor of Edmund Dantes, Eugene Moore, will be seen at the Cairo opera house on Wednesday, Dec. 18th. In these days of so many degenerate dramas, suggestive problem plays and melodramas in the line of vice, it is the grand, old real melodrama like Monte Cristo that preserve the true character of the stage as a means of recreation. It is therefore expected that the engagement of this play will be as it should, an encouraging success. Manager Fred G. Conrad has the reputation of furnishing plays with the good companies and of supplying the necessary excellent scenery to complete the production.

"Ma's New Husband."

Everything points to a gay and merry line at the Cairo opera house Friday, Dec. 20th, evening dextrabki Friday, Dec. 20th, when "Ma's New Husband" will be given its only performance in this city. Effort booking this attraction Manager Williamson had numerous proofs of its great popularity as a big laugh maker. This is a three act musical farce with most original story and extremely amusing characters. It is thoroughly up to date in the tone of its comedy and its height music and popular song hits. The latter are spoken of as being among the best heard this season. Words and music are from the pen of the well known song writer, George Fletcher.

Kersand's Minstrels.

On Saturday, Dec. 21st, for 8 matinee and night, at the Cairo opera house Billy Kersand and his famous Minstrels with the big Watermelon best part will hold the boards. The only original Billy Kersand with a repertoire of new songs and dances. Billy is better than ever. Then Cut Her Own Throat—Woman Had Quarreled With Husband Short Time Before.

Bloomfield, Ohio, Dec. 14.—Mrs. Mary Redman, wife of John Redman, a farmer living near here, this afternoon gave her two-year-old daughter Sarah, five morphine tablets and cut her own throat with a razor. She then sent her five-year-old boy to notify a neighbor of what she had done. When the boy arrived at the neighbor's house his clothing was saturated with blood. The woman and her child will probably die. Mrs. Redman and her husband had quarreled today and he had left for Circleville a short time before the tragedy.

HUGHES FOR PRESIDENT

Chancellor Day Upholds Him—Says Commissions Usurp Constitution of United States.

New York, Dec. 14.—Declaring that "calm, statesman-like men" were wanted in the White House, Chancellor Day of Syracuse University, the guest of honor tonight at the annual dinner of the New York Chapter of the American Institute of Banking, came out for Governor Hughes for president. In his speech Day discussed and deplored the attacks made upon corporate interests and upon banks. He said the commissions had usurped the place of the constitution of the United States and that they were in effect nothing more than "star chamber" sessions.

Dangerous Streets.

There is an average of eight persons injured in the streets of New York city each hour in the day, and one person is killed by such injury every 17 hours.

The First Lighthouse.

The Pharos of Alexandria, founded about 360 B. C., is the first building erected as a lighthouse of which there is any authentic record.

Luncheon Above the Clouds.

Lunch and dinner parties above the clouds are the latest fashionable craze in Switzerland. Prince Pie of Savoy recently gave a lunch in honor of Prince and Princess Nicola of Greece at the Bernina hospice, 7,575 feet high, overlooking St. Moritz. Recently Mr. and Mrs. H. Murray of this city, entertained a party on the top of the Brevent, 8,255 feet above Chamonix, each guest receiving a bunch of edelweiss as a souvenir. Alpine parties have also been given this season on the Pilatus, Rochers de Naye, Brienzner Rothall and Gornegrat.

New Bee Disease.

Among bees in the Isle of Wight a singular disease has been spreading. It assumes the form of a kind of paralysis, and up to the present all efforts to combat the maldy have been useless. It is believed that the bees will be extinct in the island within another year unless a remedy be quickly found.

Industrial Progress, Surely.

The fact that a man to-day can sit down in a restaurant overlooking the Thames embankment, or at a table under the trees at the edge of the Thiergarten and dine on fresh salmon brought from the waters of California, Oregon and Alaska, shows graphically how industrial efficiency has given romance to modern trade.
